CRUMA presents:

Seminar on Preaching and the Church Reforming

27 – 28 February 2013

THEME: Preaching the Unchanging Gospel for Change in the Changing Context

SPEAKER: Rev. Conrad Mbewe, B.Sc., M.Phil (Practical Theology), MA (Pastoral Theology)

Rev. Conrad Mbewe is a pastor of Kabwata Baptist Church in Lusaka, Zambia. He is widely regarded as the African Spurgeon. He is known for faithful and bold preaching, something that he passionately does in the changing context of Africa and the world as a whole. He is appreciated across the globe for his sound preaching that impacts life.

Seminar Purpose:

The purpose of this seminar is to study and outline Biblical principles with regard to preaching and revitalization in the life of the church, and to demonstrate that faithful preaching of the gospel is an instrument to bring about true reformation in the life of individuals, the church and society in the changing context.

Topics to be addressed:

1. Preaching the unchanging gospel for cultural transformation in the changing African context
2. Preaching Christ and Him crucified: Communicating the truth with boldness and humility: Rev. Conrad Mbewe
3. Missional Preaching: Preaching for change in a reforming church
4. Preaching for service: Fanning the flames of the spiritual gifts of the office of believers
